Give Thanks.

It is a goodly custom which once a year brings a nation to its knees in recognition of the countless blessings that flow, unbidden and unceasing, from the "Giver of all good and perfect gifts."

Literally we are not all bow before Almighty God—not so many of us as ought. Perhaps most of us are more concerned about the holiday phase of the day than the reverent duties which come with it. But through the official voices of the President and the Governors we give it sanction, and by the suspension of active employments some observance. In this land so bountifully blessed by a gracious Providence, everybody ought to have place of worship and ought to be found there at the service hour on this National Thanksgiving Day. That is not more time than we can afford to spend in the formal act of giving thanks. After that, a rational, temperate enjoyment of the day comes in place.

Every year has brought us much to be thankful for; no year more than this. We have been permitted to live in the most prosperous country on earth, among a people the most contented. "Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" have been secured to us. We have had no widespread pestilence, and famine has not cast its spectre shadow over us. Farm and mine and forge have yielded good returns, wherefore general business has been prosperous. At times and in localities the hum of industry has been hushed by unhappy conflicts, but better counsels have come and a resumption of activity has ensued.

Later the voice of the alarmist has cried wolf, when there was no wolf; but the good sense of a people with their hands and money in their pockets is carrying them safely through. Whether these prophecies of evil were knaves or fools, we have great reason to be thankful that there were not more of them. The outlook for another year promises a good return to labor and fair increase to capital.

Who has repaid so little of the general harvest that he has nothing to be thankful for? Who so ungrateful of the Great Source of all our blessings that he will not bow his head in thankfulness? "O, give thanks unto the Lord; for He is good; for His mercy endureth forever."

PERSONAL.

Senator David Davis is never "interviewed." He won't have it.

Capt. Webb, the English swimmer, has degenerated into a musical hall professional.

Ex-Senator Sargent, of California, is said to be tired of living in Berlin, and to find "diplomatic formalities wearisome."

A New York letter says George Gould, son of Jay Gould, is now seen in public a good deal. His object is said to be to represent the family in a social way. His father hardly ever shows himself outside of Wall street.

O. W. Potter, whose name has figured in the newspapers in connection with the possible lookout at the North Chicago rolling-mills, is talked of as a Citizens' candidate for Mayor of Chicago. The present Mayor, Carter Harrison, will probably run again.

Sarony has the sole right, by purchase, to print Mrs. Langtry's photographs. The demand for them is far ahead of the supply, and he says that he has orders now which will take three months to fill. In his own words, "There never was anything like it."

Judge Lindsay, of Kentucky, is said to make more money than any man at the Kentucky bar. At the close of the war he swung a blacksmith's hammer. Fifteen years ago he was a struggling young lawyer. He was elected to the State Senate, made his mark, and was elected Judge of the Court of Appeals. After serving one term he resigned and dropped into an immense practice.

BREAKFAST BUDGET.

The aggregate products of Ontario exceed those of the State of Michigan.

A New York lawyer has been disbarred for withholding from a client important letters when he was discharged by him and then turning them over to the opposing party.

The benediction of St. Thomas More and Bishop Fraser has been proposed at the Vatican. Cardinal Manning took the initiative in the matter, and has had the English State archives consulted for information to be used as evidence.

One of the rarest of coins has turned up at Berlin, in Moravia. It is a silver piece, bearing on one side a portrait in relief of Attila, the famous King of the Huns, and on the inscription "Attila Rex," and on the other the outlines of a fortified place, with the word "Aquileia." Its age is about 1,400 years.

Mrs. McCrory, a California lady, representing the Big Bonanza element, appeared in her box at the opera in New York the other night without gloves, and straightway a tale was started that "no gloves" would be henceforth the fashion. But Mrs. Grundy says that the Murray Hill people cried out altogether too soon.

All the way from Georgia "Senator Pike left the joint session the other day pending the roll on the election of Judge Lawson, to see the circus procession that was passing the Capitol. He was so impressed with 'Bollivar,' the big elephant, that when he rushed back into the hall he cried out: 'I change my vote from Bollivar to Lawson!'"

An officer in the Interior Department, whose residence is in Pennsylvania, tells his friends in Washington that thirteen of his male relatives, who have heretofore voted the Republican ticket, cast their ballots for Mr. Pattison this year, because he was obliged to contribute to Mr. Hubbell's fund and so deprive his aged mother and sisters of their monthly installment from his salary.

"Faint brings disgrace, bravery brings honor, cowardice sends a man from his fate," says the Caliph Omar; but Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has saved millions from an awful fate.

DRIFT OF OPINION.

The New Route Gang Don't Doubt It.

There will no longer be any doubt now that the President and his Cabinet are really interested in these prosecutions. The outcry of the defense is sufficient evidence of this.

The Prison Doors are Creaking.

There is but one reasonable conclusion from the action of the Administration in dismissing the officers complained of by the Attorney General—that nothing which it is in the power of the Government to move will be suffered to remain in the way of the prosecution and punishment of those who have been robbing the Treasury.

Man's How Before Gorman.

Springfield Republican.

If some Senators who could name have got to "crawl on their bellies" at all, they would look no worse assuming that attitude before Democrats than before Gorman.

A Good Enough Platform.

Philadelphia Press.

Reform the civil service, reduce the internal revenue, revise the tariff, retrench expenditure.

Take Time by the Forelock.

Providence Star.

It looks very much as if the free trade history of 1880 is likely to repeat itself in 1881. Satisfactory tariff revision may take the wind out of the theorists' sails, however.

And He Can't Dodge the Issue.

Chicago Tribune.

The Democratic party is committed to the free trade idea, pure and simple, Sam Randall and Dan Voorhees to the contrary notwithstanding.

It Seems Impossible that a Remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandaraka, Dandelion, &c., should make so many and such great cures for Biliousness; but when old and young, rich and poor, pastor and doctor, lawyer and editor, all testify to having been cured by them, you must believe and try them yourself, and doubt no longer.

THIRTY.

After eating each meat take a dose of Brown's Iron Bitters. It helps digestion, relieves the full feeling about the stomach, and cures many diseases than all other medicines put together, and many heretofore incurable.

HARRIED.

DRYDEN—WORKMAN—On Wednesday, November 29, 1882, at the bride's parents, by Rev. T. H. Hughes, Rev. William F. Dryden, of the West Virginia Conference, and Miss Jessie L. Workman, of this city.

DIED.

SPRUCEBANK—On Wednesday morning, November 29, 1882, at 10 o'clock, HARRY WINFIELD, son of Abram and Mary E. Sprucebank, aged 7 years, 7 months and 25 days.

FUNERAL from the residence of Mrs. John Lantry, corner Forty-fifth and Jacob streets, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends of the family are invited. Interment at Mt. Calvary Cemetery.

HAYMAKER—On Wednesday, November 29th, 1882, HARRIET HAYMAKER, aged 77 years.

FUNERAL from the residence of her son-in-law, II. W. Redman, No. 178 Eleventh street, at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Friends of the family are invited. Interment at Pennsylvania Cemetery.

WILSON—On Tuesday, November 28, 1882, at 10 o'clock, MRS. EMMA L. WILSON, daughter of Frederick and Mary E. Wilson, in the 29th year of her age.

FUNERAL from the residence of her parents, No. 2111 Main street, at 2 o'clock P. M., on Thursday. Interment at Mt. Wood. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

ROBERTSON—In Knoxville, Belmont county, Ohio, Wednesday morning, November 29, 1882, MARGARET A. ROBERTSON, only daughter of Charles and Sarah Robertson, aged 3 years, 1 month and 4 days.

FUNERAL from the residence of parents in Altoona, Thursday, November 30, at 10 o'clock P. M.

Our little darling girl has gone to her heavenly rest. And though we miss her in our house, yet we are glad to see her in her home above.

An angel to our house she came. With sweet words and looks of love; From her home she returned again, To her home above.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you. FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. J. T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

THE CONTRAST!

While other Baking Powders are largely adulterated with Alum and other hurtful drugs, has been kept unchanged in all its original purity and strength. The best evidence of its safety and effectiveness is the fact of its having received the highest testimonials from the most eminent chemists in the United States, who have analyzed it, from its introduction to the present time.

Other powders show so good results by the true test—the TEST OF THE OVEN.

IT IS A PURE FRUIT ACID BAKING POWDER.

MADE BY

STEELE & PRICE,

Chicago, Ill., and St. Louis, Mo.,

Manufacturers of Leavening Yeast, &c., and of the Special Baking Powder, and of the Special Baking Powder.
